Fight to save day centre

COMMUNITY groups in Honiton are rallying together in an effort to save St Michael's day centre from closure.

Devon County Council is proposing to use more private and voluntary sector provision in the future, and St Michael's is one of 35 day centres across the county that could face changes.

A petition has been launched by the East Devon Green Party, fronted by Honiton town councillor Sharon Pavey, and representatives from various groups around the town have spoken out against the plans.

Doctors at Honiton Surgery have expressed their discomfort with the plans, as have members of Headway, a support group for people with brain injuries, who regularly use St Michael's. Around 500 people have already signed the petition.

by Jack Dixon

Councillor Pavey said: "We knew St Michael's was close to everyone's hearts but we did not expect this immediate level of support. It just shows that there is such wonderful community spirit in Honiton and we look after our own.

"I think we all know that cutting services like these is extremely short-sighted and will have a direct impact on the health of elderly people. This leads to increased spending on medical care in the long run.

"We hear that levels of dementia are rising and we have a large elderly population, particularly here in East Devon, so where is the common sense in this decision?"

Vic Bowsher, Chair of Honiton Senior Voice, was one of those who signed the petition. He said: "Any reduction in provision could result in people using other services that are not suitable for their needs or having to travel an unacceptable distance to use services in a community that is alien to them.

"The loss of these services can have a real impact on the health of elderly people and the risk of closure also puts increased pressure on carers.

"There are some corners that should be cut and some that should not - it would be an absolute disaster if we were to lose St Michael's."

Devon County Council says that it has seen a 66 per cent drop in people using its day centre services since 2005 and that more people are now choosing to pursue other activities during the day.

They also insist there will be no reduction in support

Serious head injury halts game

AN INJURY to visiting keeper Lee Griffiths in the 56th minute brought an abrupt end to Sidmouth Town's visit by lowly Liverton United at Manstone Road on Saturday.

The Vikings were looking good to claim a much-needed three points as they came from behind to lead 3-1.

Andy Isaac, Mike Pidgeon and an Andrew Thompson penalty had put Town in a strong position before the game was abandoned due to the serious head injury sustained by Griffiths, making his South-West Peninsula League debut, who was knocked unconscious.

The emergency services, including the Devon air ambulance, stabilised the young keeper for 40 minutes before taking him to Derriford Hospital. It is understood Griffiths, normally a regular for Paignton Saints was making a recovery.

Sidmouth travel the short distance to take on neighbours Axminster Town on Saturday.

The Tigers warmed-up for Saturday's local derby with a 4-1 defeat at Lords Meadow at the hands of mid-tablers Crediton United.

AXMINSTER

New group to run Tourist Centre

AXMINSTER Tourist Information Centre (TIC) volunteers have called a public meeting, aiming to take over and safeguard the future of the centre.

The meeting follows Axminster Chamber of Commerce's decision to cease running the TIC after doing so for about ten years.

The chamber's Executive Committee sees the TIC as a valuable asset - but managing it takes disproportionate slices of time and resources.

As a result, the chamber has invited interested parties to form a group to take over the TIC.

TIC volunteers Sarah Crook (a former TIC manager) and Shane Morgan (a former chamber chairman) are part of a group which, seemingly reluctantly, responded by calling the public meeting.

Mr Morgan said: "There appears to be no choice to the TIC needing to move forward independent of the chamber. That is what the meeting is all about, to re-structure."

The meeting will be held in the Senior Citizens' Centre on Tuesday, April 8th, starting at 5pm.

COLYTON

RESIDENTS of Colyford have strongly objected to a new access road for Colyton Grammar School being added to the East Devon Local Plan, despite admitting that a solution to school coaches blocking roads is needed.

Speaking at last week's Colyton Parish Council meeting, which was held in Colyford, residents spoke out against the proposed access road and coach park, funded by a mix of residential and employment development, including an area for self-builds, which would be built on green wedge land between Colyford and Colyton, to the north of the village off Coly Road.

The new road would extend through to and cross Fairview Lane, terminating adjacent to Stafford Lane, opposite the school, with a coach park and footpath for students.

From the editor's chair Long live inland TICs

WITH locals councils throughout the land being forced to cut their budgets due to a reduction in government funding, the spotlight inevitably falls on services that are not considered absolutely essential.

It was several years ago that East Devon District Council bailed out of funding the individual tourist information centres in their various towns, leaving the town councils to foot the bill in most cases.

In Axminster's cases, it gets a bit complicated. Whilst the district withdrew their grant they still meet the cost of rent and business rates to the tune of £1,500 a year, which is paid to the town council.

In Seaton, Honiton and Ottery St Mary, the cost of running their own TICs is met mainly by the town councils with the chambers of commerce chipping in.

The Axminster TIC receives around 8,000 visitors a year and cost around £10,000 to run. That burden has fallen in recent times on Axminster Chamber of Commerce who have done a brilliant job in keeping the facility afloat through sheer hard graft (ie organising the annual Beer Festival, which has been a lifesaver).

But the wind of change is blowing through the chamber with new chairman Lisa Lyman and a new committee repositioning the traders' organisation to meet the needs of these challenging days.

The chamber has decided to relinquish responsibility for the TIC in the future, a decision not met with universal approval, but has committed to providing the funds for another year.

The chamber called on interested persons to take on the physical running of the centre in the Old Police Station to come forward - and that is exactly what has happened with former chamber chairman Shane Morgan and ex-TIC manager Sarah Crook leading the way.

They have both been crucial in the development and stabilisation of the TIC in recent times and whilst I doubt if either really wanted to come out of retirement, they are determined that Axminster will not lose its TIC.

Some may argue that inland towns don't need such a facility and in this digital age all the information you require is just a mouse click away.

I don't subscribe to that view. The personal touch is always best in my view.

SEATON

Seaton pool loses £10,000 in a year

SEATON councillors were shocked to hear that the swimming pool at the primary school made an annual loss of £10,000 which could result in the facility being withdrawn from public use.

Seaton Primary School was awarded funding from East Devon District Council in 2012 which was used to improve the swimming pool facilities. Since then the pool has been used as a community facility by parents and members of the public, run by Leisure East Devon (LED).

But as a result of the district council needing to find savings from its leisure facilities, LED have stated that they are no longer in a position to continue to subsidise the Seaton pool facility and is seeking financial support. East Devon Council has pledged a sum of £5,000 on the basis that this can be matched by the town council, either from existing council budgets or by a fundraising campaign organised by councillors.

Marcus Allen, the east area manager for LED, attended the meeting to give the background to the financial situation regarding the primary school pool.

He confirmed that the pool would make a loss of £10,000 in the current financial year, with the biggest expense being the employment of life-guards.

Councillor Mark Fisher, stressing that the pool had received 106 agreement money, pointed out that the people of Seaton were, in fact, being asked to pay twice for the pool facility. He thought this was "a terrible" idea, adding: "I ask you not to take this facility away from Seaton but to look elsewhere for your budget savings."

Councillor Tony Woodman said: "If we agree to this grant then we will find ourselves giving this kind of amount, if not more, every year."

SIDMOUTH

Department stores are up for sale

EAST Devon's most prolific department stores will be put on the market.

Fields of Sidmouth Ltd, which owns the Fields store in Sidmouth plus Trinity House and Home-in-Style in Axminster, announced their intention to sell last week.

There is no time-scale but directors will at some point market the whole business as a going concern, seeking a purchaser who is "sympathetic to the trading ethos of the company, sharing Trinity House and Fields' customer-centred approach and will value its skilled and loyal workforce".

Joint managing director Tim Spores said: "The Spores/Roberts families have been owners and directors of Trinity House and Fields for 36 years.

"We have developed a strong and substantial business, but with no younger family members in a position to follow and the need to make our own future retirement plans, we felt the time was now right to inform our loyal workforce."

A company spokesperson stressed it could be a while before the company is sold, saying: "It will take time to find the right purchaser and no definitive timetable can be given. In the mean time, Trinity House, Home in Style and Fields will continue very much with 'business as usual'. No time scale has been set."

OTTERY St MARY No 4 bus will not go to Skypark

SENIOR officials at Devon County Council have confirmed the No. 4 bus service, which links Ottery St Mary with Exeter, Cranbrook, Honiton and Axminster, would not be permitted to divert to SkyPark, and a new, separate service via the site could cost as much as £100,000 a year to operate.

East Devon District Councillor for the Ottery St Mary Town ward Roger Giles pursued county council transport officials after concerns were raised about SkyPark's accessibility, following confirmation of EDDC's plans to relocate to the site.

Dave Black, Head of Planning and Transportation at Devon County Council, told Councillor Giles: "Whilst the No. 4 service has capacity in terms of passenger numbers, it currently does not have any time available for diversions. It is intended that this service would therefore serve SkyPark via bus stops on the old A30 near the SkyPark entrance."

Beehive opening: 'A momentous day for Honiton'

■ The front view of the new Beehive community complex

HONITON'S new community complex, the Beehive, was officially opened last week after more than 20 years of plans and preparation, writes JACK DIXON.

The ribbon was cut on Wednesday (March 12th) by the Mayor of Honiton, Councillor David Foster, and Beehive company director Councillor Vivienne Ash, who was recognised for her dedication to the project over many years.

Civic dignitaries and invited guests were then given a tour of the complex, which includes a 300-capacity hall, a cafe and dining area, and improved facilities for town council staff.

Councillor Foster said: "This is a momentous day for Honiton. The project has been the town council's biggest to date and like any major project it has encountered problems and controversies along the way.

"But thanks to the dedication and perseverance of the many supporters and partners, including Devon County Council and East Devon District Council, this fantastic new facility is finally being made available to the people of Honiton and the surrounding area."

Councillor Foster also took time to thank the directors of the Beehive Company for their efforts managing the facility on a day to day basis, and the Friends of the Beehive charity, which has organised a number of events to raise funds to fit out the new building.

He added: "I would also like to thank the community – the Beehive is their centre, we built it for them. And there is no doubt in my mind they are going to treasure it for many, many years to come."

Councillor Vernon Whitlock, another of the Beehive's longest serving supporters, helped pupils from Littleton Primary School plant a tree outside the centre to mark the Beehive being passed on from one generation to the next.

Councillor Whitlock said: "This is a day many felt would never come. We have been handed the keys to a fantastic building – it was needed 30 years ago when the project started and even more now.

"The Beehive is a resource for all of our community and an investment for future generations.

"We will be opening for business in April with a series of opening events and a Community Fair on April 5th."

The first events at the Beehive begin early next month, with a concert featuring pianist Andreas Boyde, to celebrate the centre's opening on Thursday, April 3rd.

This will be followed by the Community Fair and three evening performances of rock oratorio 'Christ Crucified' from April 12th to 14th.

to people and everyone eligible for a service will receive it, though this could be through private or voluntary sector initiatives.

But speaking at a town council meeting on Monday (March 10th), Councillor Mike Allen said the county council has an "absolute duty to provide this kind of service".

Deputy Mayor, Councillor Peter Halse said the issue was a "matter of great concern" for people in Honiton and "unless we shout and shout loudly now", the centre could be lost.

Councillor Caroline Kolek, who was a member of the council's working group that looked into day care provision in Honiton, said the council needed to make people realise the closure is not a "foregone conclusion" and that responding to the consultation could have an impact on the final decision.

Councillors subsequently decided to respond to Devon County Council with a report produced by the working group, and a copy of a letter from Dr Daniel Murphy, sent to councillors on behalf of staff and patients at Honiton Surgery.

Petitions are available to sign at Honiton Surgery, the TRIP office in New Street and Wendy's Cookshop.

There is also an online petition for anyone living in Devon to sign <http://freepetition.co.uk/devoncc/LivePetition.aspx>

Fire at The Star Inn

FIRE crews had to cut away part of a ceiling to stop a fire in a Honiton pub.

They were called to The Star Inn, New Street just before 8:30am on Saturday March 15th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "On arrival crews confirmed that there was a fire within an electrical heater, which had also spread to a timber joist.

"Crews cut away part of the ceiling to gain access and used small tools and a thermal imaging camera. The cause was accidental."

■ The full group of dignitaries included East Devon District Council aldermen, members and senior officers, East Devon town mayors and representatives of the Royal British Legion

Raising the flag

EAST Devon District Council played a part in a national celebration of Commonwealth Day when the Commonwealth Flag was raised outside the council's Knowle headquarters in Sidmouth.

Councillor Mrs Christine Drew, EDDC Vice Chairman, performed the ceremony watched by civic representatives of local towns and by members of the Royal British Legion.

Her Majesty The Queen 'broke' the Commonwealth Flag outside the Great West Door of Westminster Abbey, at 10 am on Commonwealth Day.

The East Devon flag-raising was among 500 ceremonies around the UK, Channel Islands and Isle of Man that preceded the Westminster Abbey celebration.

This was the largest, single raising of this flag in the history of the Commonwealth.

Mrs Drew read a message of good wishes from Her Majesty The Queen, along with the Commonwealth Affirmation.

Assisting with the flag-raising was Royal British Legion Standard bearer John Hayes.

Welcome bonus for small businesses

AROUND 800 businesses across East Devon are set to benefit from a scheme that will give them rate relief of up to £1,000 for the next two years.

The scheme, adopted by East Devon District Council, is designed to give local retail businesses of a rateable value of less than £50,000 a chance to compete on a more level playing field with internet retailers.

Businesses to benefit include shops, post offices, restaurants, cafes, pubs and garden centres.

Councillor David Cox, portfolio holder for finance, said: "A

£1,000 discount will make a huge difference to small businesses and local traders within East Devon. In these difficult financial times this new scheme will provide a welcome bonus for the many excellent businesses in our district."

Businesses that qualify have already been identified and the rate relief will be included in their annual bills which are currently being distributed.

This has been done so that businesses benefit from this reduction straight away without having to wait for their application to be processed.

New tech for nurses

NURSES and midwives on community hospital wards in Axminster, Seaton, Honiton, Ottery and Sidmouth are to be equipped with hand-held computers.

Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust has secured almost £400,000 of national funding to introduce the devices at all of its 18 hospitals.

The gadgets will enable staff to quickly and easily record and review key clinical information at the patient's bedside, which will reduce paperwork and free up nursing staff.

Assistant director of nursing Bev Cox said: "We were ecstatic when we heard our application was successful.

"This will offer our nursing staff a great opportunity to lead the way in using modern technology to support them to deliver safe, high-quality, patient-centred care.

"These mobile devices can be used at the patient's bedside, putting valuable information at a nurse or midwife's fingertips and allowing them to input and access data electronically at the point of care.

"Staff will be able to work more efficiently and flexibly and spend more face-to-face with the people they care for, ultimately benefitting our patients."

Recital at St Paul's Church

ST PAUL'S Church in Honiton is set to play host to a Spring Violin Recital featuring 19-year-old Devon violinist Marie Langrishe.

Marie has played with the Devon County Youth Orchestra and was a member of Pro Corda, the National School for Young Chamber Music Players.

She has also studied at the Royal College of Music and has performed at Budleigh Salterton Festival, the Ten Tors Orchestra Chamber Ensemble and in the European Union Chamber Orchestra.

Marie will be accompanied on piano by Jonathan Watts, artistic Director of Devon Baroque.

They will be performing 'After the Tryst' by James MacMillan, Three Pieces from the Suite op. 6 by Benjamin Britten and the Violin Sonata in E Minor op. 82 by Edward Elgar.

The concert takes place on Wednesday, March 19th at 7:30pm.

Tickets cost £5 each and are available on the door or by calling 01404 47801.

All proceeds will go to the FORCE Cancer Charity to help support their new outreach services.

Crime down

HONITON'S Neighbourhood Police Team has announced another reduction in recorded crime.

PCSO Darren Wheeler confirmed that 34 crimes were recorded between February 11th and March 10th, compared to 43 for the same period last year.

Reporting to Honiton Town Council last week, PCSO Wheeler said the most significant trend over the last month was a number of town centre shop thefts.

Cafe scoops Pride of Honiton award

by Jack Dixon

LACEMAKERS' Cafe in High Street has been announced as the winner of the 2014 Pride of Honiton award, after residents cast their votes in a poll to find the town's best businesses.

The coveted trophy, won last year by House of Hair, was presented to Ray and Fiona Hanratty by Chamber of Commerce Chairman Colin Wright at the Chamber's AGM on Wednesday.

Cafe owner Mr Hanratty said: "I would like to say a very big thank you, on behalf of all the team at Lacemakers, to all those who nominated us."

"It is a humbling experience to win this award after just two years in the business and hopefully we can now go from strength to strength."

Lacemakers beat competition from A. Dimond and co, Baker's Butchers, Go Mobile, Hillside Garage, Just Cards, Liquid Assets, Otter Windows, Wendy's Cookshop, Wine World and Zest, to claim the award.

Mr Wright said: "This is the fourth year we have run the Pride of Honiton award and we had 12 nominations this year from a number of different types of business. We had some really nice recommendations.

"We set out to find businesses which have served the town well and who have gone out of their way to demonstrate excellent customers care and an outstanding level of service.

"I am delighted to present the award to this year's winners Lacemakers Cafe."

Mr Wright also told assembled members that the Chamber had enjoyed another successful year, with particular praise for businesses involvement with the town's Bygone Christmas event in December.

He also said the Chamber would continue to lobby East Devon District Council for cheaper car parking in Honiton, particularly on High Street, where businesses needed to "pull together" to enhance the shopping experience.

Hospital openings hours cut

OPENING hours at Honiton Minor Injuries Unit (MIU) have been temporarily slashed.

The reduction came into effect on Monday, March 10th, and is blamed on a lack of staff.

The days affected are Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays when the opening hours now are 10am to 6pm.

Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays are not affected; their opening hours staying the same – 8am to 10pm.

Normal hours will resume on Monday, April 14th.

A spokesperson for Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust said: "The trust has been forced to reduce the opening hours due to staff vacancies, which are in the process of being filled."

"The change in opening hours has been supported by the Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group."

Kate Lyons, the trust's director of operations, said: "We apologise for any disruption the temporary reduction in opening hours may cause."

"Reducing the hours will help us to provide a consistent service over the next five weeks."

Council considers options for cardboard recycling

EAST Devon District Council is "actively pursuing" options to provide recycling services for cardboard and mixed plastics in Honiton, according to one of the town's district council representatives.

Councillor Phil Twiss, district councillor for the Honiton St Michael's ward, told town councillors last week he was "optimistic" that a kerbside collection service would be introduced in the future.

But he also said EDDC was "reluctant" to provide a temporary cardboard recycling facility in Honiton because of the potential risk of fly-tipping and mess – problems that caused Tesco to remove its recycling skips last month.

Up until February, Tesco provided facilities for the disposal of glass bottles, cans, cardboard, paper, shoes and clothing on site, but the supermarket opted to remove the skips following "misuse".

The nearest recycling centre for Honiton residents is now the waste management facility at Sutton Barton, which is maintained by Devon County Council.

A temporary recycling facility in Silver Street to enable residents to dispose of cardboard and plastics has been suggested.

Councillor Twiss said: "We are trying to do something about cardboard and mixed plastics and are currently in negotiation with some providers to see what they can offer us."

"We are actively pursuing a number of options, but we are reluctant to provide a skip for cardboard in Silver Street – the risk there is that we pick up the tab for clearing up people's mess and you have the same problems that Tesco had."

"It is a real pain having to get rid of cardboard. It all comes down to: is it viable?"

"I am hopeful that we will do it sooner rather than later – but of course, I would like it done yesterday."

"I am more optimistic that we can see a kerbside collection service in place in the near future, but there is some way to go yet. We are genuinely working really hard to get something agreed and should be able to update the town council by its next meeting."

When Tesco removed its recycling facilities last month, Honiton town councillor Sharon Pavey called for EDDC to make provisions.

Responding to Councillor Twiss's comments, Councillor Pavey told Pulman's View: "It is very good to hear that EDDC is looking into immediate solutions for cardboard recycling and I will continue to press them for a definite solution and a start date."

"Unfortunately this is not the case with mixed plastics but Transition Town Honiton is working towards having collection days for plastics in Honiton."

"We do need volunteers to make this happen though."

Countdown to Sport Relief

HUNDREDS of runners in Honiton will be getting on their marks for the Sport Relief Mile this year, and organisers are making a final appeal for entrants.

The race takes place on Sunday, March 23rd and competitors will set off from Mackarness Hall at 10:30am, with the option to tackle a distance of one, three or six miles.

Warren Oak, from Honiton Running Club, said: "This is the third time the Sport Relief Mile has come to Honiton and last time we had more than 500 participants, so let's don the headband, get training and show the rest of the country what we can do."

"There will be plenty of activities on the day so do not forget to rope in your mates, family, boyfriends, girlfriends and colleagues too."

The Kagemusha Taiko Drummers will be providing musical support for runners as they come past New Street, and tea, coffee and cakes will be on offer in Mackarness Hall before and after the race.

Honiton Running Club will also host a mass warm-up before the event, which will be led by one of the club's trained coaches.

■ ZOE Goodwin (centre left) will be taking on a 15,000 ft skydive to raise money for Devon Air Ambulance, with Co-operative staff members Sharon, Alex Miller and Stacey Quin

Ready to take the plunge

■ A TEAM of daredevil skydivers from the Co-operative in Honiton are preparing to jump from a height of 15,000 ft to raise money for charity.

Devon Air Ambulance is the supermarket's charity of the year for 2014 and members of staff have raised more than £600 for the cause so far.

Zoe Goodwin, who has organised the event, said: "This will be my fourth jump but for the others it is their first time, so it will be a nerve-racking experience for them. They have had very little in the way of preparation – we will get a 20-minute briefing at the airfield on the day and then it will be over to them.

"We do not have a target in mind but we will try to raise as much as we can before the event.

"Each diver has offered to pay the £250 fee for the jump, so every penny raised will be added to the fundraising pot."

The team will be heading to Dunkeswell airfield on Sunday, June 1st, where a plane will carry them to a height of 15,000ft before they hurtle to the ground at around 120 mph.

First-time diver Stacey Quin said: "I cannot wait for it – I wish we could get up there and do it tomorrow."

The team will be holding a bucket collection for Devon Air Ambulance in the Co-operative's Honiton store on Thursday (March 20th) and they are encouraging people to come to Dunkeswell on the day and lend their support.

Police 'clamp down' on road crime

POLICE in Honiton say they will continue to 'clamp down' on road crime, following a successful operation carried out earlier this month.

Police officers from Honiton's Neighbourhood Police Team ran the operation at Smeatharpe Airfield on Sunday, March 9th, and carried out a number of stop checks on vehicles for roadworthiness, driving and document offences.

Officers teamed up with experts from the road crime unit and colleagues from the Environment Agency, HM Customs and Excise and the Vehicle and Operator Services Agency (VOSA), as part of the multi-agency Operation Mascot.

They spotted a number of road offences over the course of the day, and issued 14 'prohibited' notices on vehicles due to mechanical faults.

Eight motorists were reported for construction and use offences relating to their vehicles, three for 'red diesel' and one for driving without an MOT.

One driver was issued with a penalty notice for possession of cannabis.

PC Clive Vickery, from the Honiton Neighbourhood Team organised the operation.

He said: "The aim of these multi-agency operations is to clamp down on unsafe and dangerous vehicles, illegal fuel and travelling criminals. Due to their success, these operations will continue during the year."

Search dog visits college

YEAR 10 students at Honiton Community College had a visit from PC Geoff Turner-Moore, of the Devon and Cornwall Police dog section, for a special assembly on Tuesday (March 11th).

Students were given a talk on PC Turner-Moore's varied role as a dog handler and had the opportunity to meet a specialist search dog, Oscar, who is trained to search for drugs, firearms and explosives.

Headteacher Glen Smith was keen to help students understand the dangers of coming into contact with illegal substances.

Other year groups will have the same opportunity to meet PC Turner-Moore and Oscar throughout March.

Charter Day 'in the balance'

HONITON'S famous Market Charter Day event is "in the balance," according to a town councillor involved with its organisation, writes JACK DIXON.

Councillor John Zarczynski told members of Honiton Town Council last week that, due to limited funding and a lack of support from volunteers, organisers were "struggling" to make concrete plans.

The town council has set aside £500 for Charter

Day, which takes place every year in July, but Councillor Zarczynski said this was insufficient to cover the costs of the event.

He said: "We are working on the same budget of £500 and a chunk of that will have to go on printing costs, advertising and flyers.

"There is not going to be much money available but I do not see what we can do with that amount. I cannot organise a wedding on a birthday party budget."

Shopkeepers, market traders, residents and visitors are encouraged to dress in historical costume for the annual event, which celebrates the granting of a Charter to Honiton for it to hold its weekly market.

The tradition is now more than 750 years old, but this year it has been difficult to encourage volunteers to lend a hand and there are now only two people, including Councillor Zarczynski, who have offered their time.

Councillor Zarczynski added: "We are struggling to find volunteers and are now down to just two people, including myself – we have not had any support whatsoever."

"People are simply not wishing to muck in and help out with it – at the moment Honiton's Charter Day is in the balance. I do not know what we are going to do."

Last year's events included a classic car rally organised by Honiton and District Lions, as well as entertainment in the forecourt outside St Paul's Church and in the Millennium Green.

Chimney stack callout

FIREFIGHTERS were called to reports of loose chimney structure in Marine Crescent, Seaton, at about 6:45pm on March 8th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "One appliance from Seaton and an aerial appliance from Danes Castle also attended.

"Crews attended and efforts were made to make safe, by removing concrete slab from chimney stack."

Road accident

A PEDESTRIAN was taken to hospital after being struck by a car in Harepath Road, Seaton.

The accident happened at about 10:40am on Saturday, March 8th and an ambulance spokesperson said the casualty was taken to hospital in Exeter with leg and ankle injuries.

Beach clean

OVER 20 volunteers turned up for the beach clean organised by the Beer Village Heritage Centre.

"The beach is looking a lot cleaner than it was and I lost count of the number of sacks we filled!" said co-ordinator Norah Jaggars.

"Peter Crofts and the other fishermen have moved all the sacks and piles of rubbish up to the area by Charlie's Yard, and the district council will take it from there."

Another beach plan clean is being planned for the Easter weekend.

Everyone loves a happy ending

WHEN Seaton Tramway's managing director Jenny Nunn and engineering manager Lee Taylor inspected the huge damage to the track following last month's storms, they came across an oyster catcher.

The bird was so exhausted by the unceasing winds and rain, it had flopped beak first into the ground and couldn't walk or fly any further.

They picked him up and headed back to the Tramway's riverside depot on the tram that they had been able to get as close to the area of the damage as possible.

As the bird started to warm up in Jenny's jacket, they started to hope that it would recover.

A phone call to the Axe Estuary Wetlands project manager, Doug Rudge, found that he was nearby on Seaton Marshes and able to meet the tram at Riverside Depot to take care of the bird.

Doug agreed that the bird was probably so tired he had no energy left to find cover from the gales, as there were no signs of broken wings or starvation.

And the happy ending is that within two hours, the bird had recovered enough to re-join the flock on the River Axe.

Holiday lodges will reopen for new season

THE owner of the Sea Shanty Holiday Lodges in Branscombe has vowed they will be open for business for the new season.

Anthony Sellick, who lives in Seaton, has been forced to make significant repairs to imposing the cliff-side site after the winter storms wreaked severe damage.

Two of the lodges look beyond rescue after their foundations were eroded and have been left teetering on the brink.

Mr Sellick has also been forced to re-route one of the access roads on the lower part of the site after a landslip left a gaping hole which prevented access to several of the holiday homes.

But Mr Sellick stressed he and his team had been working around the clock to rectify the problems and ensure the park is in operation for the new season which will begin in earnest next month.

"We have had to re-locate two of our caravans in order to re-route the road that was damaged," said Mr Sellick.

"Two of the chalets are looking precarious and may have to be sacrificed.

"But that is what happens when you suffer 20-30 years' worth of erosion in just three weeks.

"Now that everything is drying out things are starting to look better but obviously it has hurt us though I think we have fared pretty well compared to most people."

Despite the repair work and the re-arrangement of the site, which offers stunning views across Lyme Bay, Mr Sellick was expecting part of the facility to be open this week.

The disruption to the Sea Shanty Holiday Lodges follows the damage suffered to the Branscombe Beach chalets which took the full brunt of the storms as they are located at the back of the beach on ground level.

The 13 charming cedar wood chalets on west beach are still usable but the access road was completely washed away and is currently still under repair.

The future of the five chalets on east beach looks grim as their foundations have been seriously undermined.

Beer is going for gold

FOLLOWING a meeting with the judges of the Britain in Bloom competition, Ursula Makepeace is convinced Beer has the potential to win the big prize.

Mrs Makepeace, who is the chairwoman of the Beer Horticultural Society, met with two of the principal judges, Richard Budge, parks manager of Truro City Council and Steve Clampin, allotments manager of Parks Horticultural Services in Bristol.

The pair visited Beer in 2013 and decided the village's entry didn't quite warrant the top award.

Their observations so incensed Mrs Makepeace and her team that they were going to withdraw from the competition but following a letter from the judges and then the recent meeting it seems she will again be spearheading the Beer challenge in 2014.

"Richard and Steve explained all the 'ins and outs' of Britain in Bloom and drew our attention to all the details we have to observe," said Mrs Makepeace.

"It is one thing to read the relevant documents, but it is quite another thing for these matters to be explained by people who are personally familiar with them.

"In particular, as far as judging is concerned, we have to bear in mind that we get 50 per cent of the total marks for horticultural achievement, 25 per cent for environmental responsibility and 25 per cent of the total marks for community participation, which means that it is not sufficient for just three or four people to run the whole show.

"Richard and Steve made it quite clear that, for our competition to be successful, more Beer volunteers have to come forward and help with the preparations for the day of judging.

"So we are always looking for more volunteers to come and help in our campaign to achieve a Gold Medal in 2014, which is the 50th anniversary of the Britain in Bloom campaign."

It was also decided at the recent meeting to form a group of 'Friends of the Memorial Gardens' to make the whole area more attractive for the children, their parents and visitors alike.

Literature comes to life

CHILDREN in Colyton celebrated World Book Day recently, bringing literature to life with their costumes.

Two days of special events were held at Colyton Primary, including a visit from Devon children's author Tracey Allison, known for her book "Noah's Harbour". She gave a special presentation to both Key Stage 1 and 2 pupils.

The following day, the students were able to dress up as their favourite book character with an historical theme. Special book-related activities were held in classrooms throughout the day, in-

Spring has sprung in Colyton

■ FOLLOWING months of poor weather, children in Colyton are delighted spring has finally sprung and have been making the most of seasonal events. Students at Colyton Primary School recently took part in their annual pancake races on Shrove Tuesday. Children from all classes had fun racing along the playground while tossing pancakes in a frying pan. At Colyton Caterpillars Pre-School the children have been waiting patiently for eggs to hatch and were excited last week to find they had new baby chicks to look after when arriving in the morning.

Range of speakers at Probus Club

SEATON Probus Club started the year learning all about milk bottles by local expert Peter Hayward, formerly of Express Dairies.

Mr Hayward told members that the first glass milk bottle was produced in America in 1884 and then the UK followed suit in early 1900s. Prior to that, milk was brought around in a churn on a horse and cart.

There are still some home deliveries of milk but most sales now take place at the supermarket with the milk in plastic containers. Mr Hayward had a large collection of milk bottles and was keen for them to be displayed in a museum.

Members found This knowledge on the milk industry over the decades very illuminating – they were surprised to learn that 20 per cent of our milk now comes from the EU.

The club's next talk was titled "Broadmoor", about one of the UK's high security psychiatric hospitals by George Williams.

Mr Williams drew on his previous experience as a nurse at Broadmoor to give a flavour of life with a series of anecdotes and was a most amusing speaker. He stressed that Broadmoor is a hospital, not a prison, for both men and women, some of whom have committed terrible crimes. It is highly structured and very well staffed, with emphasis on psychiatric analysis and treatment.

Some patients will spend their whole life there but many will leave after five or six years. They are encouraged to take part in a variety of activities to aid their rehabilitation.

Mr Williams said he had worked in various organisations but believed that his nursing career at Broadmoor had been the most satisfying for him.

Seaton & District Men's Probus Club welcomes new members. As well as regular meetings with a speaker, activities include trips to places of interest, coffee get-togethers and informal dining out locally. The next meeting at St Gregory's Church Hall, Seaton, is tomorrow (March 19th) at 10am when David Baldock will be talking on "Beer, Baccy and Cruise Missiles (The Story of HM Customs & Excise)".

'In-house' afternoon for floral group

THE year started on an untypical note for Sidmouth Flower Arranging Club.

Instead of having an expert demonstrator members decided to have an 'In House Afternoon'. Five members of the committee, who are regular entrants to club competitions, agreed to each demonstrate one piece of work under the overall title of "Floral Experiences".

Those brave enough to give it a go were chairman Rena Berriman, Doreen McKay, Di Emms, Sheila Baker and Judy Green. All the arrangements were to a very high standard and all seemed to show different aspects of the member's characters.

There was plenty of laughter as well as real appreciation for the stories that went along with the flowers. Rena insisted that she was no flower arranger and then produced a delightful vertical spring display, which would grace any home. Judy finished the afternoon with a brightly coloured arrangement depicting a true story from Africa.

In February the group celebrated at their annual lunch. As last year Ann and Terry Knights provided a cold buffet and glasses of wine ensured that all went with a swing. Many thanks to all the committee members who worked hard to make the tables look so pretty by providing spring arrangements that were raffled at the end of the lunch.

The next meeting on March 25th will be back to the regular format with expert demonstrator. The meeting will be held at 2pm at St Francis Church Hall, Woolbrook – visitors welcome.

Horticultural society learn year-long gardening tips

AXMINSTER & District Horticultural Society started their season well with a talk by Mary Benger entitled "Colour Through the Year".

Using slides she took members around her garden at different times of the year to give them an insight into what you could grow and which was the best plant.

The colours transformed a dull winter's day with the thoughts of spring and summer to come and what members could achieve with the right plants.

At their next meeting, the group were taken to France, Western Switzerland and Italy with views of mountains including the Dolomites and a look at the Gran Paradiso National Park thanks to Richard Horswood, who gave a very informative talk entitled "Meadow Plants of the Alps".

Original meadows are above the treeline and are host to the wild flowers, while the lower meadows no longer, due to modern agricultural methods, have them. Some of the flowers were larger than many members realised but there was a wide variety of colour.

He explained that many plants shown were quite happy to be grown in regular gardens and he said that he could not understand why some varieties were not. With the plants and scenery it was a very enjoyable afternoon.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, March 20th when Vaun Wilkins will give a talk entitled "Lydeard House Garden" at the United Reformed Church Hall, Chard Street, Axminster. Admission for members is free or £1 for visitors.

Seasonal Glory at Colyford Flower Club

COLYFORD and District Flower Club held their latest meeting on March 4th at Colyford Memorial Hall with demonstrator Sue Neale, from Ilfracombe who spoke on "Seasonal Glory".

Five entries in the club's competition were judged by their guest with Christine Perry taking the novice prize and Carol Hubbard in second. Lindi Richard won first place in intermediate with Angie Clark in second and Jean Underdown won the advanced prize.

Following business the demonstration got underway. For her first arrangement, Sue used a mixture of spring flowers, including daffodils, heliobores, pussy willow and hyacinths, while "Younger than Springtime" was played on the organ by Sue's husband, Stuart.

Her next display depicted spring cleaning while

Stuart played "When I'm Cleaning Windows", followed by an arrangement depicting a jump and a point to point meeting, using green foliage and orange roses, red tulips and orange carnations, while Stuart played the Ascot theme from "My Fair Lady".

The next display's theme was Mothering Sunday – a basket full of tulips accompanied by the song "Tulips from Amsterdam". The final arrangement included a very large piece of wood to represent Palm Sunday, draped with ferns, fatsia leaves, plaited palm and a white Orchid to finish, while members enjoyed "The Armed Man" from the Benedictus on the organ.

A vote of thanks for given by Cheryl Wilson and a good afternoon was had by the 50 members attending.

Rotary visited by cancer charity

MEMBERS of the Rotary Club of Axminster welcomed Sandy Sinclair of charity Marie Curie Cancer Care to their club to speak to them about the great work being done for cancer patients.

Sandy, who was a member of the Hammersmith Rotary Club for a while, spoke movingly about the effect of cancer as his wife became ill, and the need for additional care for her as the illness advanced.

He explained that there were 107 Marie Curie nurses in Devon, looking after the needs of 1,400 patients and their families and, with the MacMillan nurses working in the same field, specialised in the care of the terminally ill.

He was active in the fundraising for the group and arranged street collections and the daffodil badge collection.

Mr Sinclair would like to have help in arranging a concert or a poetry reading to raise funds and would welcome any support or ideas.

Sandy was thanked by president-elect Simon Dunn for his interesting and moving presentation.

■ THE Rotary Club of Axminster recently enjoyed a ten-pin bowling night at Freshwater Beach bowling centre near Bridport.

More than 30 members, partners and friends took part and many surprised themselves on their scoring and successes.

■ CHARITY VISITOR: Sandy Sinclair of Marie Curie Cancer Care with Rotary president-elect Simon Dunn

Individual champion on the night over two rounds was Rotarian Bill Coltham who, in his own words, showed "obvious signs of a wasted and carefree youth".

Birthday celebrations for Legion ladies

TO celebrated their president Audrey Lanchbery's 93rd birthday recently, Axminster Women's Section, of the Royal British Legion held a surprise tea party at the Senior Citizens' Centre.

Despite the appalling wind and rain, many members came along for the event, as well as a few surprise guests including local councillor John Jeffery.

After a repast of homemade cakes and scones supplied by members, followed by a birthday cake, Audrey was presented with a number of birthday presents, including her favourite tippie.

The Royal British Legion's Devon County fundraiser, Carole Arnold, presented the birthday girl with a special Poppy brooch in recognition of the occasion and in gratitude for all the money she raises each year selling poppies outside the post office in Axminster.

During the afternoon, members were reminded that the East Devon Group meeting would be held in Honiton on Wednesday, March 26th and the Women's Section Purse Presentation would take place in the Alphington RBL Hall on Saturday, March 29th. Transport will be arranged for both events.

CHURCH of England parishes and congregations continue to consider the proposals revised by the General Synod for the women-bishops legislation, with the majority deciding strongly in favour.

On this basis, it is possible that General Synod final approval could be given in July this year.

Honiton Deanery Synod

was assisted by a visit from their General Synod member, Emma Forward. The Synod also heard from the Director of Finance of Exeter Diocese about the financial needs of the Diocese and about the Gloucester system of accounting adopted by Seaton Mission Community.

The General Synod has newly ruled against same-sex marriages for clergy and no blessings for such. They have also pledged their commitment to fighting climate change by passing a motion recognising the damage done to the planet.

Fairtrade Fortnight just over is followed by the Real Easter Egg Campaign, which this year offers three versions and can be ordered from www.realeasteregg.co.uk and Traidcraft.

The people of churches across Southern England continue to play their part in helping the victims of flooding, with trained members being called to assist in pastoral care. The Church Urban Fund has also assisted with an emergency fund of £3million, which will allow work in nine new areas.

Churches Together in Ottery St Mary is saying farewell to James Ballantyne who has been the youth worker for 18 months. He is going to a post in Durham. Good relationships have been formed with the King's School and the primary school, as well as support for the skatepark and other initiatives during his time with the group. The project will now look to see where next and how the needs have developed.

Popular Lent soup lunches at the Parish church are followed by biblical reflections and opportunity for questions and discussion with Steve Weston the Rector.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

Plans for the visit from the WATOTO children's choir in May are progressing. More details follow later.

A recent meeting of the Devonshire Association at Colyton took as its subject the historic church benches in the county, numbering some 2,500 and drew attention to the old carvings which are the richest in the county, and the possible threat to them. A follow-on lecture by Dr Sue Andrew on Devon church houses has a similar aim.

Lent events to come include Palm Sunday on April 13th, and once again, Palm Crosses grown and made in the Companion Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf will be blessed and distributed in many churches across Devon. Proceeds in 2013 of £2,000 went to the Companion Diocese of Cyprus/Gulf. Enquiries should be emailed to markperry999@aol.com

In the meantime, events continue in East Devon with a number of courses in the parishes for Lent topics, and Lent Lunches starting with a special menu for Shrove Tuesday. Details will be available at churches or in local magazines or notice boards.

Exeter Diocese has appointed Canon Andrew Goddall, at present Director of Ministry, to a new appointment as Mission Community Development Officer and Canon Emeritus of Exeter. In this new appointment he will be assisting local church congregations, as they make progress in developing their own mission communities.

The Friends of St Andrew's Colyton have an evening of chamber music at the parish church by young musicians from Wells Cathedral School on Saturday, March 22nd at 7.30pm - tickets at the Little Shop.

More imagination needed for Fosse Way Court plans

■ THE front page of the Midweek Herald recently showed a photograph of the proposed redevelopment of Fosse Way Court in Seaton.

Whilst I would agree wholeheartedly that something needs to be done, what is proposed would do nothing to enhance the area and after a few years would look very tired and dated, and our lovely Seaton beach would again be blighted with an even larger mistake.

Please could developers think about charming buildings or some of the wonderful contemporary buildings in Cornwall using timber, glass and natural stone. Please be more ambitious, Mr Mooney.

On another note, may I say how very much the newly restored George/Malt House in the square is appreciated, thank goodness for that.

Long-awaited visitor centre will be 'great community resource'

■ WE are delighted that, after campaigning for and promoting a visitor centre in Seaton for over 13 years, it is finally about to become a reality.

This will be a great community resource for residents and visitors alike and will be an economic boost to the whole area bringing in thousands of tourists, creating new jobs and safeguarding existing ones"

BERNARD DUNFORD,
Chairman, Seaton Visitor Centre Trust

A little more privacy please!

■ MY friends and I were shocked and dismayed to discover that the repaired toilets on the seafront in Seaton have all been labeled unisex once again.

Last time when this happened there were lots of objections – have these all been forgotten and ignored? Surely, at least two or three toilets could be ladies only. The men do have the urinals as well.

Be fair, just how many "watering holes" do they really need? Us ladies appreciate our own safe, nice-smelling toilets!

Thanks for supporting Grizzly

■ WE would like to thank, through your paper, the fantastic people of Seaton for supporting, getting stuck in and celebrating the 27th annual Grizzly Race with us.

We moved Saturday's GrizFest celebrations from Cliff Field Gardens to the town centre this year and it was absolutely electric, a real sense of community with the shops and cafes buzzing and people enjoying the many activity hubs scattered through the town.

The GrizFest team would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our sponsors, local businesses, local people and visitors for making it such a brilliant celebration... thank you!

Children donate to Hospiscare

I was so touched by their letter to us I wonder if it would be possible to include our thanks through your paper please. I would really like to thank the children from Axminster Primary School for raising money for Hospiscare. To quote their reason for having sale of cakes, books, toys and competitions:

"We wanted to raise money for your charity because you help people who are ill and you're a hospice we would like to help people who are ill".

Isn't it lovely to know you have children living in your area that care about people? Thank you to all the pupils.

Electronic prescription service making life easier for patients

Patients in the Axminster area can now take advantage of an electronic prescription service. This allows their GP surgery to send their NHS prescriptions directly to the local pharmacy of their choice, using a new electronic system.

This reduces their need to visit the GP surgery just to collect a paper prescription.

The service has been operating at Morton's Pharmacy in Trinity Square since January. An increasing number of patients, especially those who require regular prescriptions, have been signing up for this convenient service.

The Electronic Prescription Service (EPS) has been introduced at a number of GP surgeries, including the Axminster Medical Practice at St Thomas Court in Silver Street.

This means that a patient using Morton's Pharmacy can choose for their prescriptions to be sent via a secure electronic system from their GP to Morton's Pharmacy, saving them a trip to the GP practice.

Benefits to the patients include:

- ◆ Choosing a pharmacy that is most convenient for you.
- ◆ Fewer trips for the patient/carer to the GP practice just to collect prescriptions. This will especially help those who receive repeat prescriptions.
- ◆ Shorter waits at the pharmacy, as prescriptions can be prepared in advance.
- ◆ Home Delivery if you need it.

◆ Text messaging when your prescription is ready.

Patients wishing to use EPS should talk to their pharmacist or ask their GP to nominate the pharmacy they wish to use. Those wishing to continue with paper prescriptions do not need to do anything and should carry on as normal.

At Morton's Pharmacy, arrangements can also be made for patients to receive a text message on their mobile phones when their prescriptions are available for collection.

Mr Ian Morton, who has been a pharmacist for 25 years and owns Axminster's independent pharmacy, said: "EPS is a more efficient and secure method of obtaining your medication, especially for those who have regular prescriptions. It is particularly effective in areas like Axminster, where there are fewer pharmacies and doctors surgeries."

Those who would like to sign up for the new electronic prescription system should pop into Morton's or telephone 01297 32115.

Alternatively, complete the form below and return to Morton's.

Ian Morton, who grew up in the Peak District, worked for several leading pharmacy chains before moving to Devon with his family. In 2001, he acquired the former Llewellyn's Chemist in Axminster. As well as dispensing NHS medicines, Morton's also offers Private prescriptions at better-than-online prices and a full range of toiletries and cosmetics.

Morton's also offer a free home delivery service for those living in and around the Axminster area. New services include winter flu vaccinations and

From Rod Stewart to the Bolshoi

THE Gateway in Seaton once again has an exciting and diverse line-up of upcoming shows.

The voice, the look, the charisma – Paul Metcalfe's Rod Stewart Tribute Act has it all!

Paul is surely the finest Rod Stewart soundalike in the UK, and is back at The Gateway for a second time due to popular demand. What sets Paul's Tribute to Rod apart is the passion and commitment he brings to every single performance. Paul has over 25 years' experience as a professional singer and entertainer and his on-stage charisma and awesome vocal ability are as close to Rod's as you'll find. Paul's Rod Stewart Tribute Act involves the same swaggering showmanship, audience participation and sheer sense of fun that has made Rod Stewart one of the most popular performers of all time. Paul performs all of Rod's massive hits, as well as many other favourites from the early booze-soaked days with The Faces through to The Great American Songbook and classic Motown tunes from Soulbook – all sung and performed in Rod's inimitable style.

Although no one has ever seen him, the misdeeds of bandit Marco Spada are notorious. Even his lovely daughter, Angela, has no idea of Spada's secret double life. He's raised her in his castle lair, while conducting his brazen plundering right under the nose of the Governor. Angela, meanwhile, has become romantically obsessed with Prince Frederici. But she's distraught to learn that he is already betrothed to Marchesa Sampietri – the Governor's daughter!

Nineteenth century French composer Daniel François Esprit Auber's rarely performed ballet in three acts has been recreated specially for the Bolshoi by choreographer Pierre Lacotte. This glorious production is both technically and dramatically demanding. It features complex choreography, lead roles created for each of the five principals, several changes in scenery, and the participation of nearly all the Corps de Ballet. Marco Spada will be screened on Sunday, March 30th. Tickets £15 advance and £17.50 on door.

Anger, Betrayal, and the chance that true love could actually conquer all. It could only be the greatest love story of all time, Romeo & Juliet.

Shakespeare's tragic tale of two star-crossed lovers has captured the imaginations of generations of theatregoers, and director David Leveaux's revival is a provocative production with a modern, urban vibe.

Orlando Bloom makes an impressive Broadway debut as Romeo and Condola Rashad is a lovely complement to him, appearing devoted, pure and wide-eyed.

Romeo and Juliet is a striking piece of theatre, and the universality of the theme never grows old: finding love, keeping love, the expense of love and, ultimately, the triumph of love over hate. Staged on Broadway for the first time in 36 years, director David Leveaux brings a dynamic energy and contemporary setting to his interpretation of this eternally tragic tale of star-crossed lovers. With 2014 marking the 450th anniversary of Shakespeare's birth, Broadway's Romeo and Juliet will appeal both to the regular theatre-goer and those coming to Shakespeare for the very first time. Romeo & Juliet will be shown on Tuesday, April 1st. Tickets £12.50 advance and £15.00 on door. Doors open 6pm, performance starts 7pm.

Puccini's La Bohème is the moving story of young love, and the most performed opera in Met history - with good reason. Maija Kovalevska, Anita Hartig, and Barbara Fritoli star as the frail Mimi in Franco Zeffirelli's classic production, with Joseph Calleja and Vittorio Grigolo sharing the role of her passionate lover, Rodolfo.

La Bohème will be show on Sunday, April 6th. Doors open 3pm, performance starts 4pm. Tickets £15 in advance and £17.50 on the door.

Tickets for all the events are available from the Town Hall box office tel: 01297 625699

RIP-ROARING COMEDY FROM CLOS

CHARD Light Operatic Society are staging "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum" at The Guildhall, Chard from March 27th – 29th. With music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, this hilarious romp was the inspiration for 'Up Pompeii', the hit 70s comedy starring Frankie Howerd.

It tells the bawdy story of the lying, cheating slave Pseudolus and his attempts to win his freedom by helping his young master, Hero to woo Philia, the girl next door. Only one problem: the virgin Philia has already been sold to a far more powerful man!

With a talented cast, a host of toe-tapping songs and a plot that includes all the elements of the classic farce there is something for everyone; audiences can look forward to serious satire, outrageous puns and unbelievable cases of mistaken identity as well as voluptuous courtesans, uproarious funerals and, of course, lots of chases.

Performances start at 7.30 nightly on Thursday 27th,

Friday 28th and Saturday 29th March with a matinée on Saturday at 2.30pm and tickets for the show are on sale now at Barron's, Holyrood Street, Chard.

The Guildhall goes back to school with disco this Saturday

AFTER the massive success of the 'Back To The Guildhall' Christmas Disco, another night was always on the cards.

This time Phil, Dave and Jo are back with a School Disco at the legendary Axminster venue. The disco is for over 18s only and is on Saturday, March 22nd, from 8pm until 1am. Tickets are £5 and available from The Archway Bookshop. If you're not sure if you can make it entry on the door is £8.

Ever since their beginnings at The Hammersmith Palais in West London school discos have spread around the country to be the country's favourite fancy dress night. Fancy dress is optional so if it's not your thing to pop on a white shirt and your old school tie that's fine. Resisting a good dance will, however, be difficult as pop classics from the late 70s, 80s and 90s blast out from the first rate soundsystem.

It needs a venue the size of the Guildhall to show off the full lighting rig and, with lasers as well, the venue will be looking amazing. The night looks to be another fun evening and a good laugh.

S.T.A.G. to perform Quartet this April

LOCAL Theatre group, S.T.A.G. (Shute Theatre and Arts Guild) are busy rehearsing for the staging their 2014 spring production, Quartet. A charming play and the inspiration for the much acclaimed 2010 movie of the same name.

Writer, Ronald Harwood combined his art with some dazzling wit, to create this 'sweet and sour' comedy that is at times poignant and at others very funny. A gem of a cast includes Nick Bussian, Steve Vernon, Tish Wells and Kathryn Gray, four very talented local actors brought together to deliver what promises to be an unforgettable evening of live entertainment. Many of you may recognise the four faces, all have been involved in local drama for some years, individually gaining much acclaim for past performances.

A special treat for the production is provided by Soprano, Anna Gregory who will sing a short introduction as an opener each evening. This will be Anna's debut in East Devon. A real coup for S.T.A.G. Anna, who recently moved to Hawkchurch, is a professional opera singer who began her training at The London College of Music. Following a break to raise her family, she returned to singing joining The Knack, Opera Works at the English National Opera and subsequently launched her professional career with Scottish Opera.

As a soloist Anna has travelled to France, Holland and all over Britain touring with Pavilion Opera, English Pocket Opera and Opera de Bauge in roles, which include Frasquita, Tosca, Violetta and Fiordiligi. In 2013 Anna performed Seiglinde in 'Die Walkure' at the Royal Festival Hall and at St John's Smiths Square in celebration of Wagner's bicentennial year. Anna trains post graduate singers as a director for Trinity Laban, London, and offers private voice tuition from her home in Hawkchurch.

The play runs from Wednesday, April 2nd to Saturday, April 5th at 7.30pm in St Michael's Church, Shute. Tickets are now on sale at local box offices or on S.T.A.G.'s website: www.shutetheatreandartsguild.org.uk Book early, this is sure to be a sell-out.

New mortgage consultant at Fox & Sons in Axminster

LOCAL estate agency Fox & Sons is delighted to announce the appointment of Sarah Hayball as its new Mortgage Services Manager, effective immediately. Sarah, who will be covering the agent's branches in both Crewkerne and Axminster, brings over four years experience in helping customers secure mortgage finance to her new role. Sarah joins the Fox and Sons' team from one of its sister agencies, William H Brown, where she worked in mortgage services at its Kings Lynn branch. Having relocated to her home town of Axminster, Sarah has taken up the role of Mortgage Services Manager locally and is really looking forward to working with home buyers. "I am thrilled to be back in my home town and working for Fox & Sons' mortgage services division," says Sarah. "Greater mortgage availability and the Help to Buy scheme have both had a massive impact on the housing market over the last year, so I am looking forward to helping as many people as possible secure a mortgage and buy their dream home." Fox & Sons is seeing increasing levels of interest from home buyers across the West Country with demand outstripping supply. The team is urging anyone who has been thinking of selling to get in touch as with so many buyers currently looking for properties now is a great time to sell. "The readiness and confidence of buyers in today's market is almost a complete contrast to what it was a couple of years ago," Sarah continues. "Buyers are now in a stronger position with access to mortgages which is great news for anyone looking to sell." If you have a property to sell and would like to book a free market appraisal with Fox and Sons, please contact 01297 32323.

Driven By Beauty: Citroën & Benefit Debut DS3 Special Editions

Citroën has revealed the first production model DS3 special editions designed in collaboration with Benefit Cosmetics.

On sale from today (12 March) and priced from £14,795, the glamorous DS3 by Benefit line-up consists of two models – based on the existing DSign and DStyle trim levels – which take inspiration from Benefit's fun and iconic beauty products. A third Benefit special edition DS3 will be unveiled later in the summer.

In a retailing first, Citroën and Benefit have worked with ASOS – the UK's largest independent online fashion and beauty retailer – to create the first online car boutique, on a dedicated section of the site at www.asos.com/citroen. Visitors can explore the new DS3 by Benefit special editions, see the inspiration behind the styling, browse the fashion and accessories used in the adverts and even get in touch with Citroën to book a test drive.

DS3 DSign BY BENEFIT

Inspired by Benefit's world renowned Benetint™ – their signature red lip and cheek stain – DS3 DSign by Benefit is powered by an efficient VTi 82 engine with a manual gearbox and is based on the DSign specification, but with added features.

The body is finished in Ruby Red metallic paint with a white roof and door mirrors, along with dark tinted rear windows, chrome detailing and 17" white alloy wheels.

The chic styling continues inside with a white dashboard, air vent surrounds and gear stick cap; bespoke black velour carpet mats with red piping and red Benefit logo, and aluminium pedals. A generous specification includes day-time running LED lights, air conditioning and a Connecting Box with Bluetooth® and USB connectivity. The luxury feel is further reinforced with attractive, stylish and sophisticated Alcantara trim on the sports seats.

DS3 DStyle BY BENEFIT

Inspired by 'They're Real!'™ – the UK's best-selling mascara – DS3 DStyle by Benefit is powered by a sporty VTi 120 manual and is based on the well-specified DStyle Plus trim.

The outside is resplendent in a distinctive metallic grey, with Benefit Orange on the roof, door mirrors and wheel centre caps. 17" black alloy wheels and dark tinted rear windows complete the dynamic styling.

Inside, the cabin is seductive with a gloss black dashboard, air vent surrounds and gear stick cap; bespoke black velour carpet mats with orange piping and orange Benefit logo, and aluminium pedals. These features are greatly enhanced by the luxurious Alcantara trim on the sports seats, which further adds to the car's undeniable aesthetic appeal.

A City Signature pack includes automatic digital air conditioning, automatically illuminating headlamps, automatic rain sensitive wipers, rear parking sensors, electrically heated and folding door mirrors, an electrochrome rear view mirror, interior mood lighting and a front central armrest. The Connecting Box system (Bluetooth® and USB) is also fitted.

All New, All Mini: The New Mini Hatch

Even though the new MINI Hatch is instantly recognisable – something which comes from having such a globally identifiable design – the car is completely new from the ground up. Every component has been back to the drawing board in an effort to optimise its function, performance and style.

The result is 'The New Original', a MINI which is distinctly familiar but enhanced in every single way. It features significant improvements in technology, engine efficiency and power delivery, driving dynamics, quality and – of course – personalisation. Inside, the new MINI Hatch is quieter than the outgoing model, with improvements to acoustic refinement inside the cabin.

The new MINI Hatch is more spacious than before, safer, finished to an even higher standard and provides the driver with a more dynamic and performance-oriented experience behind the wheel.

Inside the cabin, new technology ensures that the new MINI is the most connected car in its segment. A new central LED display, the first of its kind, provides the driver with visual feedback whilst operating the car and creates a premium ambience. It reflects a maturity and confidence in the brand's design and engineering, a car which pays tribute to its unique British heritage yet stands ready to lead MINI into the second half of this decade and beyond.

Exterior: unmistakable design, contemporary style

The body of the new MINI is 3,821mm long (MINI Cooper S is 3,850mm), 1,727mm wide and 1,414mm tall. This makes it 98mm longer, 44mm wider and 7mm taller than its predecessor. The wheelbase has been extended by 28mm, while the track width has been enlarged at the front by 42mm and at the rear by 34mm.

Seaton battle back to snatch a point Honiton edging closer to title - Axmouth held

MATCH REPORTS

AXMOUTH UNITED 3 CHERITON FITZPAINE 3

AXMOUTH let slip two valuable points when sharing a 3-3 draw with visiting Cheriton Fitzpaine on Saturday.

The Bosshill Cross side found themselves a goal down inside the first minute. However, the current Division Four leaders showed great character and, with Man-of-the-Match Reece Hales in inspired form, they stormed back to take a 3-1 lead courtesy of a Daniel Reynolds goal sandwiched between two strikes from Hales before half-time. It should have been more and it looked certain a home win was in the bag.

The Cherries were in no mood to concede though and a quick fire double after the break saw them level the score and appeared to have the momentum to steal all three points.

Having cleared their heads Axmouth began to get on top again but despite sustained pressure couldn't find a winner despite several opportunities and had to settle for a point.

"We are all frustrated after that," was Ax manager Laurie Forino's comment after the game, he continued: "The lads are just not getting that bit of luck at the moment. We are still right in there pushing but we have certainly given encouragement to those behind us."

"We have probably the biggest game of the season on Saturday with the visit of 2nd placed Exmouth Town."

ROUND-UP

NEWTOWN, beaten in the Graddon Vending Premier cup semi-finals by Watcombe in midweek, managed to get back on a winning note beating BUDLEIGH SALTERTON 4-3.

Newtown were 2-0 down but then scored twice either side of half-time and held on to take the points.

Two Ashley Barker penalties, Ben Howard and Corey O'Donoghue were Newtown's scorers. Karl Riddell, Aaron Denny and Sam Schlaefli shared the robins goals.

Leaders ST MARTINS powered to a 5-1 victory at CLYST VALLEY with both Darren Bingham and Dan Norman scoring twice.

TIVERTON TOWN facing a massive fixture programme in the next couple of months got one out of the way with a 1-0 win at HATHERLEIGH TOWN, Max Bristow was the Yellow's scorer.

FENITON were held 2-2 by SEATON TOWN who were gifted an equaliser after the home keeper Matt Kingdon missed a clearance just seconds after replacing injured keeper Chris Palfrey. Glenn Gould gratefully rolled in the goal.

Feniton, who also had Kieran Johnson sent off, led through Ben Allen and a Charlie Selley penalty. Josh French also converted a penalty for Seaton.

Topsham Town slipped to a disappointing 3-1 defeat at home to Chard Town, Rian Antat getting their only goal. Meanwhile, EXETER UNIVERSITY won 1-0 at home to BEER ALBION.

HEAVITREE RESERVES playing really well managed to hold out for 40 minutes against Division One leaders ELMORE before going down to an 8-0 defeat. Jordan Copp, Kieran Rapo and Matty Atkins all scored twice for the eagles.

SIDBURY looked set for a big win against the UNIVERSITY after going two up through Adam Connatt and Ash Small but then let one in and were happy to finally get home 2-1.

BOW AAC feel they are back in the hunt after they also won 2-1 at ALPHINGTON with Ollie Bedford getting both goals.

Division Two leaders HONITON TOWN negotiated a tricky hurdle at HALWILL 2-1 with Jack Knight and Bradley Groves scoring.

DOLPHIN settled for a single goal victory against NEWTON ST CYRES in the top match, Daniel Hall scoring the only goal.

COLYTON went goal crazy against CREDITON their 9-0 success headed by hat-tricks from Callum Somers and Mike Cullum, and Nathan Maddocks netted twice.

UPOTTERY won 2-0 at HEMYOCK to maintain their grip on Division Three, but rivals EXETER UNIVERSITY were 3-0 winners at CHAGFORD.

NEWTOWN won 5-2 at EXMOUTH AMATEURS Chris Phillips getting a brace, and WOODBURY made another second half revival to draw 3-3 with SIDMOUTH TOWN Dan Fullers scoring twice for the Wooders.

A full coach load of LAPFORD supporters enjoyed their day by the seaside at BEER ALBION where the Division Five leaders won 2-1. Mark Tucker and Jack Lee were the scorers.

UPLOWMAN ATHLETIC are the new Division Six leaders after a 5-1 victory against NEWTON ST CYRES. Adam Cumes 2, Ricky Lee, Paul Orchard and Adam Bond were the home marksmen.

OTTERTON hopes of a place in the Devon Intermediate cup final were blown away at BAR SOL ONA in Plymouth who won 4-0.

National finals for three Honiton duos

THREE partnerships from Honiton Gymnastics Club returned from the recent south west prelims as regional gold medallists, securing their places in the team that will represent the region at the national development plan finals.

Emily Lee and Piper Leisk took gold in the grade 2 women's pair event – finishing almost 1.5 marks ahead of their nearest rivals; Morgan Johnson and Aimee Deam finished first in the grade 4 mixed pairs event; and William Counsell & Ava Collins finished first in the grade 1 mixed pairs event.

"To say I'm proud is an understatement," said Pam Burns, who coaches two of the partnerships with fellow coach Melissa Ilsley, "and it's a great honour for them to represent the south west at the national finals. Piper and Emily blew the competition away, performing the most difficult routine, recording the highest artistry mark and being awarded the highest marks for technical execution. They're already preparing moves for the next grade up."

"Morgan and Aimee are proving themselves to be formidable competitors too," added Pam, "and they're gaining quite a reputation, having won their 'out of age' grade in 2013. We're also delighted for Will and Ava, who were competing in their first big acrobatic gymnastics competition."

Will and Ava are members of the Recreational Competition group, headed up by Antony Beviss.

The victories marked an outstanding regional prelims competition for Honiton Gym Club, which brought home 10 medals from a group of satisfied gymnasts, including three silvers and four bronzes.

The three gold-medal-winning partnerships will now go on to compete in the national finals in Stoke-on-Trent on 31 May, where they will represent the south-west against the other UK regions.

■ GOLD: Emily Lee, Piper Leisk, Morgan Johnson and Aimee Deam – and (below); William Counsell and Ava Collins.

Hat-trick of victories

AXMINSTER indoor bowlers have continued their excellent run in the mixed friendlies with three good home wins in the last three games writes David Harris.

We started with a 59-44 win against Chardstock with wins on all rinks – Pam Hunter, Brenda Raistrick, Alan Curtis, and Les Clark (23-16), Morrison Brown, Pam Clark. David Harris, and Margaret Crompton (19-14), and Francis Sell, Margaret Brown, Derek Pheby, and Brian Clark (17-14), before welcoming South Dorset Bowls Association for the first time and enjoying an excellent 58-47 victory – our two winning rinks were Joan Quick, Lilian Lovatt, David Harris, and Bob Sherborne (21-12) and Pam Clark, Ann Clayton, Ken Quick, and Norman Denslow (20-12).

Finally we beat Feniton (77-42) with wins for Brenda Raistrick, Barbara Mowatt, Derek Pheby, and Brian Clark (31-10) and John Hill, Lilian Lovatt, David Harris, and Ann Clayton (30-12).

The Ladies lost their last County Foxlands match 61-89 against the very strong North Devon side with three of our rinks losing very narrowly – the two home rinks of Daphne Ryan, Brenda Raistrick, Sue Rowe, and Margaret Crompton (21-23) and Phillipa White, Margaret Stancliffe, Alison Glyde, and Judith Moffitt (16-18) and the away rink of Pam Clark, Barbara Mowatt, Sheila Martin, and Chris Barber (15-18).

Our 15 year old 'protegee' Steven Apsey did well to finish in a commendable fifth position in the National Under-18 Finals held in Bromsgrove last weekend and will still be eligible for the same Competition for at least the next two years.

IT was a proud moment for all the coaches to see so many AVR's competing in the fourth Junior Grizzly. The new, faster and flatter two-lap course still included a stretch of beach.

The winner was Ben Franklin from AVR, 16:04, in a 'photo finish' with Oliver Roger from Woodroffe School. Just 15 seconds behind them in 3rd place was AVR William Blackledge. Arun Hawkes was just one second behind, followed by Ethan Day, 16:40 in 5th place.

Mia Bartlett, the first girl home, 8th overall completed the course in a speedy 17:10.

All the results are on the Axe Valley Runners website: <http://www.axevalleyrunners.org.uk/>

About 200 children competed in the one-lap Fun Run cheered on in the sunshine by crowds on the seafront. One of the organisers of the Grizfest, Paul Johns said, "These are probably the biggest childrens races in the South West"

Congratulations to the Junior March Handicap winner, Daniel Lloyd-Davies. Matt Thurgood came second, Mia Bartlett third and Archie Clode fourth.

After running the Grizzly last week in just over 3:30 you would expect Roger Bramley to have a bit of a rest, but no, he headed up to Gloucester to run the Gloucester 20, an arduous, challenging 20 mile road race.

He says it was a perfect post Grizzly warm down and pre London warm up run in near perfect conditions with the temperature soaring to 19°C.

Roger was pleased to finish 200th in 2hrs 51 mins out of the 500 accepted entries.

Exotic racing programme comes to Cotley!

RACING enthusiasts attending the annual Point-to-Point meeting on Sunday, March 30th at Cotley, near Chard in Somerset will be in for a surprise when they see the runners entered in the first race of the day at 11.30am.

Four shaggy ships of the desert, otherwise known as camels, are due to come thundering down the finishing straight, ridden by jockeys wearing flowing Lawrence of Arabia style regalia, all in aid of the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance charity.

"Camel racing is an exciting addition to this year's race meeting," said Tom Eames, the new Chairman of the Cotley Point to Point.

"We've got four camel races, each with four camels competing and we've been inundated with riders willing to raise sponsorship in order to be jockeys, and from businesses wanting to sponsor the camels."

We are hoping to raise over £4,000 for Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance from both the camel racing and the Cotley Hedge Laying Competition, which is taking place the day before the point-to-point."

Up beat Ax looking to build on successes

AXMINSTER Town Cricket Club has started its Winter nets in preparation for the new season in April.

The sessions are held on Friday nights from 6pm at Colyton Leisure Centre until April 6th. They will then move outside, at Cloakham Lawns.

The Club runs two sides with the 1st team playing in the Devon Cricket League B division and the 2nds playing in C division.

The 2013 season was a very successful one for Axminster Town CC, with both teams being promoted.

They are now looking forward to building on that success by welcoming new players of all ages and abilities.

Chairman Peter Kiy said: "Everyone at the club is excited by the challenge of a higher standard for both teams."

"We have been very pleased with the turn out at nets so far and the club feels vibrant. Fingers crossed for similar weather to last year!"

The club also has a thriving colts section with an ECB registered coach.

Head injury forces abandonment at Manstone

AN injury to visiting keeper Lee Griffiths in the 56th minute brought an abrupt end to Sidmouth Town's visit by lowly Liver-ton United at Manstone Road on Saturday.

The Vikings were looking good to claim a much-needed three points as they came from behind to lead 3-1.

Andy Isaac, Mike Pidgion and an Andrew Thompson penalty had put Town in a strong position before the game was abandoned due to the serious head injury sustained by Griffiths, making his South-West Peninsula League debut, who was knocked unconscious.

The emergency services, including the Devon air ambulance, stabilised the young keeper for 40 minutes before taking him to Der-riford Hospital.

It is understood Griffiths, nor-

Sidmouth travel the short distance to take on neighbours Axminster Town on Saturday.

Local derby ahead

The Tigers warmed-up for Saturday's local derby with a 4-1 defeat at Lords Meadow at the hands of mid-tableers Crediton United.

The host led 2-0 at the interval before Ax enjoyed an all-too brief purple patch. During this time Dan Beer came off the bench and netted the consolation - his first goal of the season.

But United struck twice more to seal the win.

Tigers' manager Gary Macauley was disappointed with his team's showing, he said: "After last week it was like watching a completely different side, we like any drive at all.

"Even at 2-0 at half-time I felt we could take something from the game if we could lift our game.

"We did this for a 15-minute spell and got the goal back, but other than this it was very flat.

"I hope to see more fight in Saturday's derby game with Sidmouth. If players can't get up for these games they need to take a long, hard look at themselves."

"I'm hopeful Callum Garrett will be back fit and ready for Saturday - we certainly missed him"

Tigers: Brett Garner, Mike Knight, Gary Knight, Gary Macauley, Leigh Beer, Ben Turner, Ben Vine, Adam Downes, Danny Galloway, Joel Seward, Adam Cowling.

Subs: Stuart Broom, Dan Beer, Dan Turner.
